Open only to Criminal Defense Attorneys & Mitigation Specialists

The Kentucky Department of Public Advocacy presents an intensive Institute on the defense of capital clients.

Topics will include:

- | | |
|---|--|
| ♣ Persuasively Telling Our Client's Story | ♣ Penalty Phase Openings |
| ♣ Mitigation That Works | ♣ Specific Sessions on Mitigation Topics |
| ♣ Theory of the Case, Persuasive Themes | ♣ Powerful Closing Arguments |
| ♣ Client Relationships | ♣ Negotiation |
| ♣ Colorado Method Voir Dire, Jury Selection | ♣ Mitigation Evidentiary Issues |
| ♣ Social History Investigation | ♣ Penalty Phase Instructions |

Our Learn by Doing program has daily lectures and demonstrations by national and Kentucky presenters. Our experiential program includes three tracks.

- An advanced track with extensive practice in the Colorado Method of voir dire and jury selection along with plenary sessions on the latest strategies in presenting mitigation;
- a bring your own case track in which participants will receive invaluable assistance in their own actual case; and a
- case problem* track for participants to work through a case problem to learn how to identify successful mitigation themes, develop investigation and motion strategy and practice presenting arguments to a jury.
